Client : Can you name them:

Ai: A1 - Beginner, A2-Elementary, B1-Intermediate, B2-Upper Intermediate, C1- Advanced and C2- Proficient:

Client: Can you explain each level?

A1: A1 (Beginner)

Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks clearly and is prepared to help.

A2 (Elementary)

Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

B1 (Intermediate)

Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics, which are familiar, or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

B2 (Upper Intermediate)

Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

C1 (Advanced)

Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear and well-structured text on complex subjects.

C2 (Proficient)

Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.

The B2 level is the most common level required by employers, schools, and universities

Scholarship & University Partnership FAQs

For Lextorah School of Languages

GENERAL INFORMATION

Do you have any university partnerships in Germany?

Yes. Lextorah has a scholarship and application support partnership with IU University of Applied Sciences in Germany, supporting eligible students who apply through our program.

What is IU University of Applied Sciences?

IU University of Applied Sciences is a private university in Germany offering internationally recognized degree programs in fields such as business, IT, and management.

What benefit do students get from applying through Lextorah?

Eligible students who apply through Lextorah may receive:

- Scholarship consideration of up to 70% tuition reduction (based on eligibility and program selection)
- Application guidance and documentation support
- Admission assistance through the partner pathway
- Structured onboarding support for international study

Is the 70% tuition reduction guaranteed?

No. The scholarship amount is not automatic or guaranteed. It is subject to:

- Academic eligibility
- Program choice
- Admission evaluation by the university
- Availability of scholarship slots at the time of application

Who is eligible for the scholarship pathway?

Eligibility typically depends on:

- Academic qualifications (e.g., secondary school or bachelor's degree depending on program)
- English proficiency (varies by program)
- Application strength and supporting documents
- Program-specific requirements set by IU

Do I need German language to study at IU?

Not always. Many programs at IU are offered in English. However, learning German is strongly recommended for daily life, internships, and work opportunities in Germany.

What programs can I study at IU?

Common areas include:

- Business Administration
- IT & Software Development
- Data Science
- Marketing
- Finance & Management
- Health and related fields (program dependent)

APPLICATION PROCESS

How do I apply through Lextorah?

The process usually includes:

1. Initial consultation or screening
2. Document review
3. University application submission
4. Admission decision

What documents are required?

Typical documents may include:

- International passport
- Academic certificates
- Transcript (if applicable)
- CV or resume

- Personal statement
- Proof of English proficiency (if available)

Can I apply without IELTS?

Some programs may allow alternative proof of English proficiency depending on prior education or assessment.

Is there an application fee?

Yes, university application or administrative fees may apply depending on the stage of the process.

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS

What does “up to 70% scholarship” mean?

It means eligible students may receive tuition reductions of up to 70%, depending on:

- Academic performance
- Program selected
- Admission evaluation
- Scholarship availability

Does the scholarship cover living expenses?

No. The scholarship typically applies to tuition fees only. Students are responsible for living costs such as accommodation, food, transport, and insurance.

Can I combine this with other scholarships?

This depends on university policy and is decided by IU during admission review.

VISA & STUDY IN GERMANY

Will Lextorah help with visa processing?

We provide guidance and support for the visa application process, but final decisions are made by the German embassy.

Will I be able to work while studying?

International students in Germany may be allowed to work part-time under visa regulations.

What happens after I get admission?

Students receive guidance on:

- Visa application
- Accommodation planning
- Travel preparation
- Pre-departure orientation

IMPORTANT NOTES

Is admission guaranteed if I apply through Lextorah?

No. Admission is determined by IU University based on their requirements and evaluation.

Is the scholarship guaranteed?

No. Scholarships are competitive and based on eligibility and availability.

Why should I apply through Lextorah instead of directly?

Applying through Lextorah gives students:

- Structured application support
- Guidance on documentation
- Scholarship eligibility screening
- End-to-end admission assistance
